At the Tavern

In this module you will find:

• 1. Dictionary

Illustrated, and with all the useful vocabulary for this module.

• 2. "Find the dishes!" Game

- Red cards with the name and the picture of the dish
- Show 4 dish cards, then remove one and ask: "What is missing?"
- Students raise the card that corresponds to the missing dish.
- They can also play the game in groups.
- After a few repetitions, the teacher, instead of showing the children one of the dishes, shows them the surprise card: the jinx cat.

What is missing?

• 3. "Match the pairs!" Game

- Cards with the picture of the dishes (yellow cards) and cards with their names (blue cards)
- Students turn over two cards and try to make a match (picture and name).

• 4. "Mix the pot!" Game

- Red cards with the name and the picture of the dish
- Green cards with the ingredients
- Cards with a paper pot
- Children can also play the game in groups.
- They work together to match the red cards (dishes) with the green cards (ingredients needed) and put them in the pot.
- The members of each team, upon completing their work, will each receive a golden Michelin star!

• 5. "Ingredient Detective!" Game

- Green cards with the ingredients
- Red cards with the name and the picture of the dish
- The teacher distributes the green ingredient cards among the teams, keeping the red dish cards herself/himself.
- She/He shows one red card at a time, writes the ingredients of the dish on the board - but omits one - and the students in groups must identify which ingredient is missing by checking their cards.
- The group that finds the most "missing ingredients" wins the Chef's Hat. (σκούφος/skoufos)

• 6. Role Playing: 'At the Tavern!'

- Students: one plays the waiter, the other the guest.
- The phrases used by the characters are printed on cards — pink cards for the waitress and light blue cards for the customer.
- The students then take part in a role-playing game, working in pairs

Menu

Μουσακάς
(moussakás)

Moussakas is a traditional dish made of layers of fried eggplant, sliced fried potatoes, minced meat, and béchamel sauce.

The Greek salad, also known as "choriatiki," is the most famous Greek salad. It consists of fresh tomatoes, cucumber, onion, green pepper, olives, salt, olive oil and of course "Feta" (greek cheese).

Χωριάτικη
(choriátiki)

Φασολάδα
(fasoláda)

Fasolada is a soup that contains white beans, carrots, onions, celery, red hot pepper, olive oil, and salt. It is a source of protein.

The famous souvlaki is a type of sandwich made of meat -usually gyro or soutzoukaki- wrapped in pita bread. It may include fresh tomato, fried potatoes, onion, mustard and ketchup, or tzatziki (yoghurt with grated cucumber and garlic).
